

CONVENTION PATTER

It's 'GAME ON' for the July, 2025 ILSDC

The countdown begins! In nine short months, dancers and dance leaders from Illinois and nearby states will arrive for the 39th annual Illinois Square & Round Dance Convention, slated for July 18-20, 2025, in Rosemont, Ill. With a theme such as, "Game On," anything is possible.

Our featured caller, Patty Greene, promises much fun and more than a few games as she leads the convention. Dancers can also look forward to an array of callers and cuers from across the Midwest and beyond sharing their skills.

As of the end of October, more than 50 dancers have signed up, according to ILSDC Registration Chair Bob Aronsohn. The special Convention rate at our host hotel, the Sheraton Suites Chicago O'Hare, will be $157 per-night + taxes. Book your room now to ensure your best convention experience.

Your ILSDC Destination...

Rosemont, Illinois, will again be our host town for the 2025 Illinois Square Dance Convention. Rosemont, only a mile from O'Hare Airport and about 20 miles from downtown Chicago, is home to such tourist attractions as the Rivers Casino, iFly Indoor Skydiving, Fashion Outlets of Chicago, and a host of world-class restaurants. And of course, the Windy City and all it has to offer is only a short drive away. Lake Michigan, Navy Pier, museums, shops, great restaurants—why not come early or stay after the convention and enjoy Rosemont, Chicago, and everything in between. Make it a getaway to remember.

What do a Rubik's Cube and square dance calling have in common? Both involve getting corners in the right place. Scan the QR code for an EASY video on how to get started in solving a Rubik's Cube.

ILSDC Wheel of Fortune
